

Being a resident of South Florida and a local government employee, I could really appreciate XM's ability of instant traffic & weather reports. Calling 511 on your cellular while driving can be dangerous. Hoping to here a report on regular radio is hit or miss, usually miss. Please don't stop satellite radio from providing this time saving service.

God Bless America